COPYRIGHT 1908 BY P. F. COLLIER & SON

"He is the gentlest memory of our world"

Collier's Lincoln Number

AN EXCEPTIONAL ISSUE

MORE important than any former Lincoln celebration, this year's marks the hundredth anniversary of the great President's birth. Interest also is fixed upon this year as the important one in the history of the Lincoln Birthplace Farm in Kentucky. To signalize this celebration appropriately, Collier's will publish, on February 13, 1909, a Lincoln Number of unusual character.

A new Lincoln portrait in colors will appear on the cover.

There will be also:

A full-page picture by Peixotto, showing the Lincoln Birthplace Farm as it will appear when the Memorial is completed.

A full-page picture in colors, showing the Birthplace Farm as it appeared on the morning of February 12th, one hundred years ago.

Full accounts of the national scope of the Lincoln Centenary celebration.

A full-page appropriate editorial on Lincoln.

An article on the Lincoln Farm Association, its history, and its important significance as a national institution.

Last Advertising forms for the Lincoln Number of Send copy earlier to make sure

E. C. PA

Manager Adver

NEW YORK

CH

A Lincoln Supplement

THE CELEBRATION AT THE LINCOLN FARM

IN ADDITION to the body of Collier's Lincoln Number, there will be inserted a special souvenir supplement, containing the particular features which may be preserved for permanent reminders of this important celebration. Particular emphasis will be laid upon the exercises which take place at the Lincoln Birthplace Farm in Kentucky on February 12th. Probably no American has ever been accorded so notable a tribute as this celebration.

President Roosevelt will deliver the Lincoln Centenary address.

Cardinal Gibbons will offer the Invocation.

Ex-Governor Folk of Missouri, who is President of the Lincoln Farm Association, will preside at the exercises at the Farm and deliver the opening address.

Governor Willson of Kentucky will speak on behalf of Lincoln's first neighbors and his native State.

General James Grant Wilson of New York, who was a personal friend of Lincoln, will speak on behalf of the Federal soldiers.

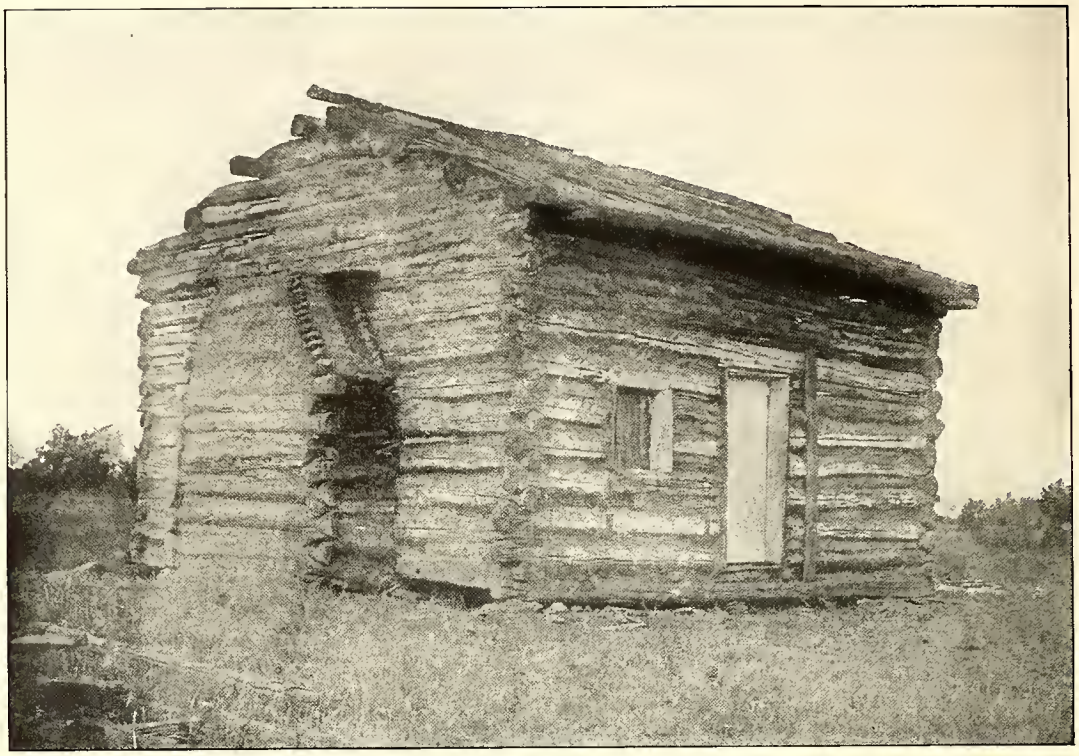
Hon. Isaiah T. Montgomery of Mississippi, a former slave of Jefferson Davis, will speak and deposit a copy of the Emancipation Proclamation in the cornerstone of the Lincoln Memorial.

Bishop Galloway of Vicksburg will offer the Benediction.

Other interesting features will be included in this Supplement.

llier's will close in New York on Monday, January 25
insertion in this important issue

TERSON
ing Department
AGO BOSTON



This cabin, in which Lincoln was born, has been recovered by the Lincoln Farm Association and will forever be preserved in the new Memorial Hall

11.2009.034.05.32